

Has Gambling Become a Problem?

Does it get in the way of work, school, or other activities?
Does it harm your health, finances, reputation, or relationships?

Answer 3 Questions

Gambling may be a problem if you answer
“Yes” to any of these questions.

During the past 12 months have you:

- Become restless, irritable, or anxious when trying to stop/cut down on gambling?
- Tried to keep your family or friends from knowing how much you gambled?
- Had such financial trouble as a result of your gambling that you had to get help with living expenses from family, friends, or welfare?

Contact Maine's Problem Gambling Helpline

Dial 211 or
Text your zip code to 898-211

Specialists are available 24/7 with information, resources, and a list of counselors with problem gambling training. No-cost counseling, in-person and via telehealth is available.

Having thoughts of suicide?
Call Maine's Crisis Hotline: 988

Find Resources

Find in-person and virtual support groups, and self-help resources such as videos, podcasts, and workbooks at maineproblemgambling.org

